Dear all

Please see below a message from Adam Hollier Photography which might be of interest. We will not be organising anything as a school but are glad to share the information should you wish to take part.

Kind regards

Hi Bishopwood team,

I am emailing about a local project which you may have already heard about... but if you haven't - here are the details:

Adam Hollier is marking five years of his photography business by producing a book full of portraits of local people. 'Tring People: Portraits of a Town' will hopefully feature hundreds of characters and a portion of the profits will be going to The Hospice of St. Francis. Anyone with a connection to Tring will be welcomed to one of the free photo shoots!

We have only held one portrait photo session so far, but about 70 people turned up so we are thrilled with the response! The next shoot dates are:

Wednesday 11 July: The Akeman, 10am-1pm
Thursday 19 July: High Street Baptist Church, 9-11am
Wednesday 25 July: Black Goo, 6-9pm
Sunday 5 August: Tring Martial Arts: 10am-12 noon

We would really like to include you, your pupils and your colleagues in the book and would also like to ask you to please share details of the project with your parent network. The more people we can get involved, the more amazing the final collection of images will be!

Please join and share our Facebook page to keep up to date with all the plans: Tring People: Portraits of a Town

Please let me know if you have any questions at all. We hope to see you at one our shoots and will welcome your colleagues, friends and family too.

Thanks!
Charlotte
