LAMDA CLASSES

A LAMDA exam is the speech and drama equivalent of a music grade, developed by one of the oldest drama schools in the country.

The LAMDA classes are focused individually on your child, tailored to their needs, interests and abilities. They can choose to study Acting, Devising Drama, Verse & Prose, Public Speaking or Shakespeare, and they can work on their own, as a pair, or in groups of three plus.

These classes not only develop your child's love of drama, they help them become confident communicators. If they choose, they'll also prepare them to take LAMDA exams.

Lessons are 20 minutes, taught peripatetically once a week during school time on a Friday afternoon for 12 weeks.

£12 per session (individual), £8 each (in a pair) or £6 each (groups 3 +)

Booking and payments are per term.

Taught by Lindsay Allen, a professional actor and teacher, with over 20 years experience in theatre, TV and radio.
