

These are just some examples of Roman mosaics. The one you design could be of any animal, fish, bird or insect. You could create a pattern like the one above or if you really want a challenge, how about creating a Roman head or face using mosaic tiles or a mythical creature! You can make your mosaic using squares cut from coloured paper, squares cut from magazines or comics or squares coloured using pencils or felt pens. Be imaginative and have fun!