Mr G Stanley, Headteacher

Friday 3rd May 2019

Dear Parents and Carers,

Summer Fayre

Buddies are forging ahead with all their plans for the Summer Fayre. Friday 10th May is the annual 'Bring a Bottle' day. Donated bottles will form part of the tombola and will raise lots of money to enrich your child's education. Buddies will be stationed at access points on Friday to collect your donation. Thanks in advance for your donation!

Around School

Year 3 have had an interesting week looking at the life cycle of plants. Every child planted a sunflower seed and left them to germinate in the greenhouse. Unfortunately, some birds managed to get in and feast on the recently planted seeds. Year 3 will be replanting their seeds and hope for more success. The highlight of the week for Year 4 was the visit from Mr Sohal to talk about Sikhism. They enjoyed learning some fun and interesting facts. Miss Record and Miss Francis went the extra mile to lay on a crime scene in their classrooms this week. The children used this as a stimulus for their newspaper writing. Year 6 had a visit from the staff at Tring School as part of their transition to Year 7. They were on great form and the staff from Tring (including Mrs Collings) could not speak highly enough of them.

Coffee Morning

I will be hosting another coffee morning this term. Please come along and have a chat if you are available. It is an excellent way for you to communicate with school in an informal setting. We are there to hear about anything we are doing well and any suggestions you might have. Come along!

The next coffee morning will be held on: Wednesday 5th June at 09.00

House Games

Miss Cooper and Mrs Wager are starting off some House Games this term. Years 3 and 4 have kicked it off today with some netball. The results were:

1st Mars 2nd Venus 3rd Saturn 4th Jupiter

Year 5 and 6 will take part later in the term. All the points will contribute to the running House Point total.

Golden Time

We would like to say a huge thank you to the Bishop Wood Buddies for their recent donation towards some more craft focused Golden Time activities. Mrs Hart, who coordinates Golden Time, has invested in lots of lovely things including Hamma Beads, Bracelet Making Kits and Origami papers to name a few.

Race 4 Life

Miss Record and Miss Francis are running the Race for Life next weekend. If anybody would like to contribute to their fundraising efforts, please pop in and see Debs or Sarah. I know that they would value your support. Good luck to both of you!

Kayaking Club

The after school Kayaking club run by Mr Titley is starting next week. It takes place on a Wednesday and is always very popular with the children. Sessions are currently full but more will be available for later in the term. Keep an eye out for a letter after half term.
