

When you have watched the video, draw a picture or write an example in each of these shapes to show how you have been keeping your brain healthy this week. Connecting has been harder during lockdown, and I am sure you have been missing your family and friends. Have you connected in ways other than actually meeting up with people?